

NAIDOC Week Grant Program

Applications close: 30 June 2026

Are you part of a remote community or region planning an event, activity or project to celebrate Aboriginal culture during NAIDOC Week in 2026?

The Northern Territory Government's Aboriginal Partnerships & Reform Unit is offering grants of up to $5,000 to support community led events that showcase Aboriginal culture, language and history – past, present and future.

Whether you're planning a community gathering, cultural performance, art project or storytelling event, this program supports local ideas that bring people together and celebrate the strength, resilience and identity of remote Aboriginal communities across the Territory.

Grants of up to $5,000 are available to promote and manage an event, project and/or activity as part of NAIDOC Week celebrations in 2026.

Applications for the NAIDOC Week Grant Program are now open and close on 30 June 2026.
